

An Amazing Day Full of Fun for Children at the Franklin Area Folk Festival!
(schedule subject to change)

Kids' activities are scattered all throughout the Cowee School Arts and Heritage Center campus and will be on-going from 10:00 am – 4:00 pm.

Kids' Activity Tent located mid-field

- Old Fashioned Lawn Games: egg races, sack races, tug-o-war
- Milk "Cow" Challenge
- Crafts (check schedule for times): make take home items such as banjos and corn husk dolls
- Activities: Weaving and butter churning

Other Tents Outside:

- Corn Shellin'
- Grandma's Wash Day: use a washboard to clean clothes
- Face Painting
- Civil War Re-enactors Camp
- 4-H Craft, traditional toys exhibit / visit with the goats
- Read-to-Me free book give-away
- Back Porch Heritage Photo opportunity: experiment with antique implements, musical instruments, etc.
- Border Collie demonstrations
- Dancing jacks with fiddle music by Richard Tichich
- Learn about bees with Paul
- Cross cut saw with Nantahala Hiking Club
- Many other demonstrators with hands-on activities

Inside the School:

- Smoky Mtn. Quilter's Guild Make-it/Take-it sewing item
- Ornament making in the Cowee Pottery wheel room
- Weaving in the Hall by Cowee Textiles
- Stroll through the Toy Museum
- And more!

Kids young and old are sure to enjoy this fun filled, historic day as we embrace life as it was in the early days. Nestled in Cowee West's Mill Historic District at 51 Cowee School Drive in Franklin, NC, the Center is a unique showcase for demonstrating the everyday skills, crafts, and music of our ancestors.